

Tranquil Retreat!

7905 Swanson View Dr.

The Spirit Lodge. Started in 1980, this compound of eight separate buildings is the life's work of a talented artist, teacher, and published author. A fully fenced, flat Trincomali lot hides a secret garden. A fusion of Asian and Pacific Northwest elements. Most of the contents will stay with this work of art, including the Spirit Lodge entrance sign from the Native Pavilion of Expo 86. The 712 square feet of living space offers a main living cabin, a kitchen cabin, a bathroom cabin, and three separate sleeping cabins, and finally a tranquil meditation space. Connected by 1090 square feet of decks and winding paths, through beautiful fig trees and bamboo varieties, you'll also find a hot tub and a cedar lined sauna. This special place has been cared for by a family dedicated to art for generations. Now it waits for you to continue its irreplaceable spirit.
